Venice, July 10. N. S.

THE Corps of the late Signior Foſcarini, Ambaſſador-Extraordinary from this State to the Hague, having been brought hither by Land, was Interred on Monday laſt. Baron Urbich, Plenipotentiary and Councellor of State to his Czariſh Majeſty, has had his Audience of Leave, and is ſet out from hence, appearing well ſatisfied with the Succeſs of his Negotiations, and the Preſent made him by the Senate at his Departure. A large Convoy bound to the Levant is ſailed with a favourable Wind, as is likewiſe another for Dalmatia. They write from Rome of the 4th Inſtant, that the Pope return'd thither the Sunday before from Caſtle-Gondolfo, and has ordered Signior Spinola to haſten his Departure for Barcelona. On Sunday the 28th of the laſt Month the Counteſs of Borromeo arrived at Naples, having been met by the Viceroy, and a numerous appearance of the Nobility at ſome diſtance from the City, into which ſhe was conducted with much Pomp, and receiv'd with a Diſcharge of the Artillery, and the Acclamations of the People.

Hanover, July 21. N. S. Mr. Scot, Envoy-Extraordinary from the Queen of Great Britain to his Poliſh Majeſty, ſet out from hence on Sunday laſt for Dreſden. The ſame Day the Prince of Kourakin, Miniſter and Plenipotentiary from the Czar of Muſcovy to her Britannick Majeſty, arrived here from England, and ſet out yeſterday for Wolfenbuttel, from whence he is to proceed to Dreſden, before he returns to the Czar his Maſter. His Czariſh Majeſty has ratified the Contract of Marriage between his Son the Hereditary Prince of Muſcovy and the Princeſs of Wolfenbuttel, whoſe Dowry is ſettled at ſeventy thouſand Crowns a Year. His Majeſty has deſired, that the Solemnization of the Nuptials may be deferred to the end of the Campaign, in which caſe he propoſeth to aſſiſt in Perſon at the Ceremony, which is to be performed at Wolfenbuttel. On the 10th Inſtant the Electoral Princeſs, who has of late been much indiſpos'd, was deliver'd of a Daughter to the great Joy of this Court. Upon Advice, that the King of Poland has refus'd to proceed to the Election of a new Emperor 'till the 20th of the next Month, the Baron de Goertz has ſuſpended his Journey to Frankfort. Our Letters from Poland of the 3d Inſtant adviſe, that the Army in Lithuania was marching to join the Saxons and Muſcovites, ſoon after which it is thought they will endeavour to penetrate into the Swediſh Pomerania. It is confirm'd on all Hands, that the Principality of Wallachia has thrown it ſelf into the Protection of his Czariſh Majeſty.

Cologne, July 21. N. S. Signior Albani, the Pope's Nephew, is arrived here from Frankfort, and has been Complimented, and receiv'd the uſual Preſents both in behalf of the Magiſtrates and Chapter. It is ſaid he is to ſet out forthwith for Duſſeldorp, in order to confer with the Elector Palatin, and endeavour among other Matters to induce his Electoral Highneſs to give his Conſent that Commachio be reſtored to the See of Rome: After which he will return to Frankfort, in order to be preſent at the approaching Election of an Emperor. The firſt Detachment from Flanders under the Command of Count Vehlen, has paſt the Maine at Cotſheim, where the ſecond Detachment conducted by Count Feltz is likewiſe ſpeedily expected, in order to paſs the ſaid River, and purſue their March to the Upper Rhine.

Hague, July 24. N. S. On the 20th Inſtant the King of Pruſſia caus'd a Memorial to be delivered to the States, wherein he deſires immediately to be put in Poſſeſſion of the Houſe of Dieren, and that the Conferences for ſettling his other Pretenſions may be regularly continued; ſince this Monſieur Hymen, Miniſter of that Prince, has been in Conference with the Deputies of the States. Yeſterday a Courier from his Excellency Sir Robert Sutton, the Queen of Great Britain's Ambaſſador at Conſtantinople, paſſed thro' this Place, in order to embark for England. He brings Advice, that ſince the Surrender of Mongatz every thing continues quiet in Hungary. The Grand Vizier marched from Adrianople the 14th of May, with the Forces that have been encamped near that Place; and the reſt of the Troops are in Motion on every ſide, in order to follow him towards Bender, the Place appointed for the general Rendezvous of the Army, which was to be aſſembled by the 12th or 15th Inſtant. Monſieur Swabe, Miniſter from the Duke of Sax-Meiningen, has been in Conference with the Deputies of the States, upon the Subject of ſome Troops which his Maſter offers to put into the Service of this State. According to our Letters from Bruſſels, the late Elector of Bavaria is ſtill at Luxemburg, it being not yet known whether he is to proceed from thence to Command on the Rhine, or return to Namur. They write from Dreſden, that the King of Poland returned thither the 17th from Torgaw, and that the Hereditary Prince of Saxony is to go directly from Leicktenburg to Slaven, and from thence to Frankfort. On the 22d the Body of the late Prince of Naſſau was taken up by a Skipper near the Place where the Prince was loſt. Our Letters from Vienna adviſe, that Mr. Whitworth, the Queen of Great Britain's Ambaſſador Extraordinary, and Plenipotentiary to the Czar of Muſcovy, arriv'd there from Dreſden the 5th Inſtant, and that on the 8th his Excellency deliver'd her Majeſty's Credentials to the Empreſs-Regent. The King of Denmark ſet out from Copenhagen on the 18th of this Month, and arrived on the 20th at his Army, which was to March on the 24th. Count Sinzendorf and Baron Heems have been for two or three Days at Amſterdam. It is reported with great Confidence here, that the Empreſs Regent has prevailed with the Elector Palatin to aſſiſt in Perſon at the enſuing Election of an Emperor at Frankfort, in order to promote and ſecure his Catholick Majeſty's Intereſt on that Occaſion.

Bruſſels, July 25. N. S. Letters of the 23d from the Duke of Marlborough's Quarters at Cote adviſe, that the Army encamped on the 21ſt with the Right at Ligny, and the Left at Marle, having Aire in the Rear. Theſe Letters add, that upon Advice, that a Body of the Enemy's Forces had that Morning taken Poſt before Arleux, in order to attack the Place, forty Squadrons and all the Grenadiers of the Army were immediately detached to endeavour to prevent their Deſign; but our Advices of yeſterday from Douay bring an Account, that they made themſelves Maſters of Arleux the Day before at three in the Afternoon, after a very vigorous and long Reſiſtance from the Garriſon.
